

Biography for Massey Villarreal

Massey Villarreal has an exceptional record for service in both the public and private sectors. He is most known for his work in economic development, serving on numerous advisory boards, and has held leadership positions across local, state, and national chambers of commerce.

For more than 20 years, he has served three Texas governors as an appointee to the Economic Incentive Oversight Board, the governing board of the Texas Economic Development Corporation, and the Board of Regents of the Texas State University System.

Mr. Villarreal has been named one of the 100 Most Influential Hispanics in the U.S. by Hispanic Business Magazine and one of the 100 Most Influential Hispanic Republicans by Newsweek. He is currently CEO and President of Precision Task Group, Inc., (PTG), a Hispanic-owned and managed technical system's integration firm providing business solutions to public and private sector firms.

The first person to ever be Chairman of a local, state, and national Hispanic chamber, Mr. Villarreal served as chairman of the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce (TAMACC), and the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (USHCC). He sits on the Board of the Greater Houston Partnership (GHP) as well as GHP's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Force. Mr. Villarreal served for three years as Chairman of the Texas Association of Business (TAB) Foundation and currently serves as Chairman of the TAB Board

Mr. Villarreal is currently serving Governor Greg Abbott as an appointee to the Economic Incentive Oversight Board. Mr. Villarreal also served several years under Governor Rick Perry, through his appointment to the Texas Economic Development Corporation as well as the Texas Public Finance Authority, prior to which, Governor Perry appointed Mr. Villarreal as presiding officer (Chairman) of the governing board of the Texas Department of Economic Development (TxEd). Mr. Villarreal led a successful transition of the agency to the Governor's office, effective September 1, 2003. In September 2001, Mr. Villarreal completed a six-year appointment to the Board of Regents of the Texas State University System, which is composed of nine university components throughout Texas, by Governor George W. Bush.

He also serves National Council member American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), Texas Association of Community College Business Advisory board, Excelencia in Education, and the Memorial Hermann Hospital System Board. Mr. Villarreal served two terms as Chairman of the Houston Golf Association (HGA) and First Tee of Greater Houston.

Mr. Villarreal is a native of Corpus Christi, Texas and resides in Sugar Land, Texas. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science from Texas A&M -Corpus Christi, formerly Corpus Christi State University.